WHAT: Update to Event Where Douglas County Sheriff Will Be Shaving His Head For Kids' Cancer

NARRATIVE: DOUGLAS COUNTY: On Friday, March 16, 2007 at 11:00 am, Sheriff Weaver, commissioned deputies, members of the 18th Judicial District Attorneys Office and civilians will be shaving their heads to support the St. Baldrick's Foundation. St. Baldrick's raises money and awareness globally for childhood cancer research through volunteer-driven events that pair great fun with this worthy cause. These participants will be shaving their heads in front of cheering supporters to experience themselves one of the most stigmatizing public aspects of cancer-losing one's hair from chemotherapy treatment.

This particular event will honor Isabella Ackerson, the daughter of Investigator Niles Ackerson of the Sheriff's Office. Isabella lost her battle with infant ALL/MLL Leukemia on December 27, 2006. Isabella was only six months old.

Again this event will be held on Friday, March 16, 2007 at 11:00 am. It will be held in the Jury Assembly Room in the Robert A Christensen Justice Center which is located at 4000 Justice Way, Castle Rock, Co.

Update Information****

There are now over 63 people signed up to have their heads shaved on the 16th. The event will also be attended by a few active NFL players. We are also very lucky to have 3 members of the NFL Alumni in attendance.

Again, the Sheriff is going to brave the blade and shave his head. To make it more exciting, the person that donates the most money in the name of Sheriff Dave Weaver will get to take the first swipe at his locks with the clippers.
