I. KNOWLEDGE OF, AND ADHERANCE TO, LAWS AND OFFICE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES <26.1.1>

A. Ethical Behavior

The Office looks to the Law Enforcement Code of Ethics, which is made a part of this manual, for guidance in measuring members' behavior. All members shall abide by, as well as, read and provide signature in PowerDMS for the Code and make themselves aware of its principles. <2.2.2> <COM 2.2.2>

Every member shall be faithful to their oath of office, the principles of professional policing, and the objectives of the Office and the County; in the discharge of their duties, members must not allow personal motives to govern their decisions and conduct. <7A-01>

B. Conformance to Law

Office employees shall obey all laws of the United States and of any State or local jurisdiction in which they are present.

Any member of this office, whether on or off duty, who is arrested, charged or convicted of any crime, or detained by any law enforcement agency or criminal justice agency regarding a criminal offense, shall notify their supervisor of that fact immediately. Within the following eight hours such members must forward a memo detailing their arrest or detention, through their chain of command, to the Sheriff. If the member is unable to generate a memo then it shall become the responsibility of their supervisor.

When an employee is arrested, issued a criminal summons or a traffic summons (not including penalty assessment citations) or is the subject of a restraining order the member must notify their supervisor immediately. Members cited for any traffic violation while operating a County-owned vehicle are bound by the same reporting requirements.

The dismissal or other disposition of any criminal offense shall not prevent the Administration from bringing charges against the affected employee.

A conviction for the violation of any law shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this policy. The material elements constituting a violation of these policies to be proven shall be based upon the elements of law, statute or ordinance alleged to have been violated and through a preponderance of evidence. If a member is found guilty by a judge or jury, or pleads guilty or nolo contendere to any charge or violation of law, the Office need not reestablish that a violation of law occurred.

C. Respect for Constitutional Rights

Members shall not knowingly violate the constitutional rights of any person. No person has a constitutional right to violate the law; neither may any person be deprived of his or her constitutional rights merely because they are suspected of having committed a crime. A member who lawfully acts within the scope of his or her authority does not deprive persons of their civil liberties. An employee may, within the scope of his or her authority, make reasonable inquiries, conduct investigations, and arrest upon probable cause. However, when an employee exceeds his or her authority by unreasonable conduct, the employee violates the sanctity of law which he or she is sworn to uphold.

Office employees shall not make any arrest, search, or seizure which is not in good faith and is not supported by a law.

D. Investigations, Arrests, and Detentions

At the scene of any event under investigation, the ranking officer present must assume command and direction of Sheriff's Office personnel in order to assure the most effective and efficient delivery of police services, unless he chooses to delegate his authority. Such delegation shall not remove or abrogate the final responsibility from the command officer.

E. Use of Force

Members shall not use more force in any situation than is reasonable and necessary under the circumstances. Employees shall use force in accordance with Office procedures.

F. Knowledge of Policy

It is the responsibility of every member to read, understand and comply with all policies, orders, directives, rules and regulations of the Office. <7C-03>

G. Violation of Rules

Employees shall not commit or omit any acts which constitute a violation of any rules, regulations, directives, orders, or policies of the Office, whether stated in this policy or elsewhere. Employees shall be responsible for their own acts, and they shall not shift to others the burden or responsibility for executing or failing to execute a lawful order or duty. <12.2.1g><12.2.1h><COM 2.1.5h>

H. Reporting Violations of Law or Rules

Employees knowing or suspecting of other employees violating laws, ordinances, or written directives of the Office, shall report same in writing to their immediate supervisor within five working days of first having knowledge of the violation. Employees may report the violation directly to the Professional Standards Bureau within five days of first having knowledge of the violation if in the employee's judgment it is the most appropriate method of disclosure given the circumstances. This policy is not intended to alleviate an employee's responsibility to report any event governed by mandatory reporting requirements as established by state statute.

II. GUIDELINES, WORK RULES AND EXPECTATIONS

A. Hours of Duty

Every employee shall be assigned regular hours of active duty. Members shall be considered 'off-duty' during other hours.

Authority to act shall exist regardless of whether deputies are in their own jurisdiction or within another jurisdiction in the State of Colorado. They shall also remain at their residence or place of confinement unless otherwise directed by a physician.

No employee shall feign sickness or injury to deceive the Office regarding his or her condition.

H. Chain of Command

Members shall adhere to the authority levels delineated in the Office chain of command.

Nothing in this part H shall be construed to prohibit an employee from making use of the Sheriff's 'open-door' policy.

Vehicles will be assigned by the appropriate division commander based on assigned personnel needs and operational objectives.

During the operation of any Douglas County vehicles, all employees and volunteers will adhere to the following rules:

1. Members driving a County-owned vehicle shall possess a valid Colorado driver's license.
